BERLIN, Nov. 5.—Russian forces were reported in panic-stricken flight before the advancing German blitz troops in the Crimea today as the high command announced Nazi forces have reached the Black Sea coast. German front line accounts said the invaders were smashing their way across the peninsula after great Russian defensive systems south of the Perekop Isthmus crumbled and collapsed.

According to these dispatches, the broken Russian defenses contained every device known to the French Maginot line and were reinforced by miles of mined fields.

Declared Fleeing

Founded by the Luftwaffe and pursued by panzer units, the Red armies were declared to have abandoned whole columns of trucks, weapons and supplies and to be fleeing in "all directions."

Fall of the Crimean port of Feodosia, announced yesterday, was said to signal the "doom" of Kerch—the Crimean outlet to the Caucasus.

German military authorities said Feodosia had been fortified street by street and had special orders from Premier Josef Stalin to hold out "to the last house."

Kerch, when taken, they said, will give the German navy and Luftwaffe a "convenient base" from which to strike at the Caucasus.

PA NEW OBSERVES

Wilbur Patterson, basketball coach at Union high school, almost got the bag limit in two shots, while hunting in Neshannock township, Saturday, the opening day of hunting season. It is learned Patterson flushed some ringnecks, and taking careful aim, banged away, and to his surprise, two birds tumbled down. A short time afterwards, he drew a bead on a rabbit, and to his consternation, knocked off two bunnies with the one shot. It is unlikely that any hunter will ever duplicate this feat.

Rolls of snow fences are being placed along the highways for erection, Pa. Newc noticed this morning.

The name Badger seemed to have some appeal to the voters on Tuesday, especially in Shenango township. Clyde D. Badger was elected sheriff, his father, Henry Badger, was elected assessor of Shenango township and his uncle Samuel V. Badger was elected road supervisor of Shenango township.

Britain Has Intercepted 44
French Ships Trying To Run Blockade

(International News Service)
LONDON, Nov. 5.—Britain has intercepted 44 French ships trying to run the British blockade, the ministry of economic warfare announced today.

In addition to the five Vichy ships corralled yesterday in a naval battle off South Africa, the ministry said, 39 other French craft totalling 164,000 tons were intercepted on various routes this year.

Constant attempts to run the blockade have been made by Vichy ships since September, 1940, a spokesman for the ministry said.

"The most important blockade-running route they attempted to establish was from Indo-China via Madagascar."

The spokesman revealed that the tonnage of the five ships seized yesterday was 39,000.

(Vichy protested yesterday's action, asserting that the ships in question carried no contraband.)

Five Vichy ships have been sunk in Mediterranean "danger zones" since last June, the spokesman added.

"For blockade purposes," he said, "it is impossible to draw any distinction between occupied and unoccupied France. Both are regarded as being in precisely the same category, as enemy-controlled territory."

tim Of Auto Fumes

(International News Service)
ZELIENOPLE, Pa., Nov. 5.—Edward J. Kaufman, 51, proprietor of the local hotel which bears his name, was found dead today of carbon monoxide poisoning in his garage.

Kaufman, friends said, had a habit of rising early each morning to check his hotel supplies, and then sit in his automobile, listening to the radio while the motor warmed the heater.

His wife, Mrs. Myrtle Kaufman, warned him frequently of the possible danger, and this morning, she and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Hazel Curtis, found his body. The radio was playing, the motor was running, and Kaufman's lifeless body was found near the door, which had swung partly shut.

In his 17 years as proprietor of the hotel here, Kaufman had made his establishment famous in nearby states. Especially for chicken dinners. Sometimes he served 1,000 meals a day.

TOKYO, Nov. 5.—The strained relations between Japan and the United States neared a "showdown" stage today and Premier Hideki Tojo launched a new and perhaps final campaign for settlement.

After conferring with the Japanese privy council and explaining Japan's "firm attitude" in the Pacific crisis, Tojo dispatched to Washington Saburo Kurusu, former ambassador to Berlin.

Kurusu left for Hong Kong to board a clipper plane for the United States. He carries explicit instructions from Tojo to cooperate with Admiral Kichisaburo Nomura, Japanese ambassador in Washington to explore every possible avenue for settlement.

Parker of Oil City, and Superior Court Judge Charles E. Kenworthy, of Ardmore, defeating their Democratic opponents, W. Russell Carr, of Uniontown, and Michael A. Musmanno, of Pittsburgh, respectively.

Returns from more than two-thirds of the precincts had been received by the time the returns were being tallied.

Continue Probe Into Death Of Dr. McMasters

"Overwork" Most Plausible Motive In Case, Says Butler Co. Coroner

(International News Service)
SLIPPERY ROCK, Pa., Nov. 5.—Butler county authorities and State Motor police continued their investigation today into the sudden death of Dr. Dale McMasters, president of Slippery Rock State Teachers college, which was listed as "probably suicide."

"Overwork" was advanced as the most plausible motive by Coroner J. Charles Dengler, who explained: "He wasn't sick last night, (Monday night) he made a public address and this morning he seemed in the best of spirits at breakfast. There was no family or financial trouble, and the burser of the school said that he had no trouble with school administration or finances."

"When the maid came to clean his study, he asked her to return later, as he wasn't finished with his work. She went to another room. Then he heard the shot."

The maid, the president's wife and a guest found the body. A .32 caliber revolver lay nearby. McMasters' head bore a bullet wound.

McMasters, 55, served as superintendent of schools at Johnstown before taking the post at Slippery Rock. He assumed the presidency after a state police investigation of the schools purchasing methods.

Rostov

(BULLETIN) KUIBYSHEV, U. S. S. R., Nov. 5.—Tremendous Ger- man attacks up and down the great Russian front have been halted or repulsed in furious fighting that inflicted "huge losses" on the Nazis.

The Germans attacked in the Crimea, the Donetz and Don basins and on the western and northwestern sectors of the Moscow front, but were prevented from gaining headway, Soviet authorities declared.

Claim Reds Make Raids
At the same time the Moscow radio announced that long-range Red air force bombers had raided three enemy cities.

The centers attacked by the Russian bombers were the East Prussian capital of Koenigsberg, German-occupied Riga and the Baltic port of Danzig.

In all three cities, the radio broadcast said, "fires and explosions were observed." The announcer added that "all our planes returned safely."

Russian bombers and fighters, including newly arrived British Hurricanes, were said to have "effectively attacked enemy positions" Tuesday in the area west of the far northern port of Murmansk, where German forces were reported to be bottled up.

"We have said time and again that anyone who goes to England by water goes to his death."

"We have nothing to add except emphasis."

Meanwhile, German quarters declared they were satisfied with re-action in the United States toward American Secretary of State Cordell Hull's warning to Finland to cease hostilities against Russia or forfeit American friendship.

Scores Third Successive Victory Over Tammany Machine In New York

MAJORITY SHOWS BIG REDUCTION

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—By a greatly reduced but nevertheless decisive majority, Mayor Fiorella H. La Guardia today scored his third successive victory over the Tammany Democratic machine and led his coalition of four political parties to another four years of control of New York City.

In the closest municipal election in 35 years, the peppery, pugacious and dynamic little political leader became New York's first third-term mayor after a bitter, mud-slinging campaign involving such national figures as National Democratic Chairman Edward J. Flynn, former Postmaster General James A. Farley, Gov. Herbert H. Lehman, Wendell Wilkie and Thomas E. Dewey.

Presidential Aspirations
Important political considerations including La Guardia's reported aspirations for the presidency, hinge on the result, and the reverberations of this sizzling municipal campaign may echo in future state and national campaigns and conventions.

All involved gave it everything they had, and the president himself made an election-day declaration in La Guardia's favor. Many credit the president's statement at a press conference late Monday afternoon at Hyde Park with checking a trend against the mayor who won easily in his last campaign with a majority in excess of 400,000 votes.

The official count today gave La Guardia a plurality of 133,841 votes over his Democratic opponent Brooklyn District Attorney William O'Dwyer, who made a surprisingly strong campaign. The mayor's total was 1,186,394 to 1,052,553 for O'Dwyer.

RUSSIANS CLAIM GREAT GERMAN ATTACKS HALTED

and Finnish troops were reported renewing their offensive. British advisers said that at the southern extremity of the front the Germans started a mighty offensive and drove a wedge several miles toward Rostov, gateway to the Caucasus. Soviet defenders were said to have halted this drive before it reached the city.

Prepared For Defense

(The Ankara radio declared in a broadcast that "competent quarters" consider the Russian Black Sea fleet is not endangered by the German campaign in the Crimea. This same broadcast contended the Caucasus is well-prepared to defend itself and that "British forces are in position to extend adequate support.")

Widespread Russian dive-bombing assaults all over the main battlefronts were credited with wiping out 6,000 enemy troops, 36 tanks, 37 field guns and 810 trucks.

The midnight Russian high command communiqué said that on the Moscow front, Russian planes destroyed 22 tanks, 250 trucks "loaded with infantry supplies," 15 guns and several military supply depots.

Further south Russian air attacks were said to have demolished 14 tanks, 260 trucks, 16 guns and other equipment and to have annihilated 1,500 enemy officers and men in two days.

Around Kalinin, northwest of Moscow, the war bulletin said, Russian bombers annihilated eight German infantry companies, totalling some 4,500 men, and knocked out 300 lorries, seven gasoline trucks and six guns.

and Humphrey 8,022. Judge-Elect Lamoree is finishing a term as district attorney and will go directly to the bench from that office.

Potter High Scorer
The race for sheriff was the closest one of the day as Deputy Clyde D. Badger won handsomely with a vote of 15,441 to 11,067 for his Democratic opponent Ralph H. Ramsey.

The present assistant district attorney Leroy K. Donaldson won the district attorneyship with a vote of 17,851 to 17,776 for Attorney James Keller the Democratic candidate.

Register and Recorder Orville Potter was high man in the scoring Tuesday, polling 18,559 votes for re-election as against 9,984 for Esperance Brophy his Democratic opponent. Potter was also high in percentage, defeating his rival by almost three to one.

Other Candidates
For jury commissioners, the two candidates named in the primary, George J. Forrest (R) and Tad E. Shields (D), were elected. Forrest getting 16,175 votes and Shields 8,814. This is one office where two parties must be represented and Shields thus becomes the only Democrat to get a place Tuesday.

For county surveyor W. Leslie Wilson defeated his Democratic opponent H. L. Stewart by a vote of 16,514 to 8,046. Candidates on the Republican enjoyed the lush picking of the party in this county also. Judge William M. Parker, seeking election to the supreme court bench received 15,612 votes as against 8,343 for W. Russell Carron the Democratic ticket.

For Superior Court, Judge Charles E. Kenworthy polled 14,771 votes to 9,961 for the Democratic candidate, Judge Michael A. Musmanno.

Lamoree Makes Record

The new judge-elect, John G. Lamoree piled up a record in his victory Tuesday. His majority was the largest ever polled by a successful candidate for the judiciary in the history of judicial elections in the county.

He also has the distinction of being the second youngest man ever to be elected to the judgeship in the county, the youngest having been Judge William E. Porter, elected in 1904. Judge-elect Lamoree is just past 40 years of age while Judge Porter was approximately 35 when he was elected. He is the second man to go directly from the district attorney's office to the bench. Judge R. Lawrence Hildebrand having done this in 1925.

Sheriff-elect Clyde D. Badger has the distinction of going directly from a deputy sheriff's job to the sheriff's job, the first deputy to accomplish this at least since the World War.

Jury Commissioner George J. Forrest is the first commissioner to be elected for three terms, the last precluding a third term for jury commissioner until comparatively recently.

isolating the naval base of Sevastopol, German troops were pictured "pouring down to the Black Sea" from these captured mountain passes.

"Now," German authorities declared, "they can spread out along the 'Russian Riviera' and quickly drive the Russian Black Sea fleet to its hideouts on the Caucasian coast."

German, Italian and Hungarian forces operating in the Donetz basin were declared to be systematically occupying remaining industrial centers.

Counter-Attack Attempts
In some sectors, they said, the Russians vainly attempted to counter-attack across the Donetz river but were beaten back with terrific losses, just as the Red armies were hurled back when they attempted to break out of Leningrad at the northern end of the front.

The Luftwaffe continued to blast Soviet embarkation ports on the Crimean peninsula, German officials said, adding that there was "little prospect that many troops will escape."

According to the high command communiqué, Nazi forces reached the Black Sea after smashing the Yalta mountain defenses in a series of attacks.

Emphasize Mission

Japanese official circles emphasized the importance of Kurosu's mission by pointing out that the clipper, due to leave Hong Kong today, is being held up until Friday to enable the envoy to get aboard.

"Kurosu is being sent to Washington," a spokesman said, "to facilitate amicable settlement of the Japanese-American negotiations in view of the very serious situation which prevails."

This new development came in the wake of a newspaper flurry over the possibility of a Japanese-American conflict. The Japan Times Advertiser organ of the foreign office, warned that the "North Pacific states are tottering perilously on the brink of war" and presented a seven-point program which it said the United States must adopt to preserve peace.

At the same time the influential newspaper Nichi Nichi carried a Washington dispatch—disclaimed by Japanese officialdom—reporting that Japan had delivered an "ultimatum" to the United States.

Republican Triumph

"The Republican triumph not only preserves the sanctity of constitutional government and the basic laws of human freedom but repudiates the theory of political partisanship in the state judiciary," said Justice Parker when advised he had been elected to the full 21-year term on the state's highest court.

"I am grateful for the splendid vote given my candidacy," said Judge Kenworthy. "I am convinced that the people of this commonwealth still look to the courts as a tribunal of freedom and social equality."

Both Parker and Kenworthy are now serving part-time terms as appointees of Gov. Arthur H. James. Parker having been boosted by the chief executive from his 10-year term on the state superior court.

G. O. P. Wins In Philadelphia

In Philadelphia, G. O. P. candidates for county offices engulfed their Democratic opponents and restored to Republican power the office of treasurer, register of wills and coroner, now held by Democratic incumbents. R-publican incumbent candidates for three common pleas court positions were victorious also in a sharp exhibition of party strength in the state's largest city, while Democrats retained the city controller's post. Each party won four magistracies.

The major Democratic victory was marked up in Pittsburgh where Cornelius D. Scully was re-elected mayor by 3,684 votes over the Republican candidate, Harnar D. Denny, Jr. The Democratic majority in registration approximates 80,000 in Pittsburgh. Other Pittsburgh posts were also garnered by the forces operating in the important race for Allegheny county sheriff.

Former congressman Frank J. Corbett, Republican, took a commanding lead over his Democratic opponent, Leo Abernathy.

In Dauphin County
A landslide of votes swept all Republican candidates into office in Dauphin county, while the G. O. P. was markedly victorious also in Luzerne county, carrying all posts but one. Only Democrat to win in Luzerne county, the home of Gov. Arthur H. James, was J. Harold Flannery, who defeated Thomas Lewis for judge of a common pleas court vacancy created by the retirement of Judge Benjamin Jones.

The majority election in Scranton, third largest city in the state, was won by Howard J. Snowdon, Republican, who defeated State Sen. Edward J. Coleman, Democrat, by 737 votes. Snowdon was supported by Governor James. The Democrats swept practically all Lackawanna county offices, however, electing District Attorney Michael J. RECREATION AND MORALE

IT is reported from London that photographs have been published of thousands of people attending dog races and other sporting events in Great Britain in an effort to show that Great Britain is not doing its utmost to help Russia in this time when all-out-aid to Moscow seems essential.

As a matter of fact, most people in England now criticizing their government for not invading Europe at this particular time, "whether or not," are Communist sympathizers who regard Russia as their "spiritual" home, if the word spiritual can be used in this connection.

But be that as it may, it is a mistake to believe that depriving the people of a nation at war of all the amusement is the way to win. The civilized human has always required recreation. One may recall the historical story of Ivanhoe, and the tournaments and contests which were held and widely attended when England was passing through some of its darkest days.

There have been no reports Germany—supposedly organized for war to the Nth degree—has closed its amusement places. The world has remarked at the morale of the Russians and yet we read that theaters in Moscow are more crowded than ever with the German armies only a few miles away.

As a matter of fact, shutting down on recreation for a people in a nation at war would not help win the war. It would only sap the morale of the people.

No American knows just how much Great Britain is aiding Russia at this time, but certainly curtailing all recreation would not help any.

THIS ARMISTICE DAY

November 11, 1918, marked the end of the war to end war, close of the struggle to make the world safe for democracy. The hopes and expectations of free peoples everywhere seemingly had been confirmed by victory on field of battle. It was an inspiring occasion, inducing many observers to believe that permanent peace at long last was within reach.

What happened thereafter is an old story—the rise of the dictatorships and the drift to another and still more terrible war.

This 1941 occurrence of Armistice Day occurs at a time when American ships are again being fired upon by submarines and American naval vessels are being sunk. The United States is engaged in undeclared war with Hitler.

People are wondering, as never before, whether any future armistice may be expected to bring greater assurance of peaceful international relationships, whether modern warfare can do more than sow the seeds of some future Armageddon.

H. G. Wells, famed British writer, once declared that "civilization is a race between education and catastrophe." A tragic example of the catastrophe is now at hand. The question is: Will education, in the broad sense of an unremitting quest for free and honorable dealings, ever make possible mankind's permanent liberation from the bloody grip of Hitler?

BEAVER TALK

When at home do Mr. and Mrs. Beaver have anything to say to one another? For the answer to the question apply to the department of education of the American Museum of Natural History, which alone appears to have been curious enough to take steps to find out. The method is to place a highly sensitive microphone within the wall of the beaver house in Palisades Interstate Park, across the Hudson from New York City, and string wires therefrom to an automobile in which the investigators listen and a recorder records the sound conveyed.

There can be little doubt that the heads of the fur-bearing family, in their snug but dark retreat, reached only by an under-water door, have plenty to say to each other, not to mention endless admonitions or even scoldings for the younger generation. At work, in the open, they seem to be too busy for mere chatter, but if alarmed the sound of a flat tail on water tells plenty. They may be less talkative than the birds, whose emotions, if not thoughts, are conveyed clearly even to untutored humans who may care to listen.

To hear the sounds beavers make at home, if any, is one thing; to interpret them is another, but the naturalist is not discouraged. A man once caged himself in the tropical wilds to study the language of the monkeys and gained to have learned something. It may be called a waste of time, but to the scientist no time is wasted if so much as a crumb of knowledge can be gained.

BEAT IT TO THE PUNCH

Build defenses against fire in the interest of national defense. That program should be followed aggressively now by every community, whether it be a village of 100 or a metropolis of teeming millions.

Fire prevention is one of today's urgent "musts." We must save the resources that fire destroys. We must save the time and effort that fire dissipates. We must save for productive purpose the lives, the money, and the materials that feed fire's insatiable appetite.

There is but one way that can be done. That way is the voluntary, enthusiastic co-operation of the American people in the greatest all-out effort to prevent fire that the world has ever known. Teach fire prevention in the factories of America—the homes of America—the schools of America. And teach it vividly, dramatically, so that the lessons will be remembered.

Any community which is not carrying on a continuous, persistent fire prevention drive at this time, is shirking its duty to the nation. The same thing goes for industries and individuals. Fire destroys hundreds of millions of dollars worth of material every year—materials that could and should be used for the manifold, growing needs of defense, and for the needs of normal life.

The most potent community weapon against fire is a modern, enforced ordinance which will adequately cover such vital matters as building construction, inspection of properties, etc. One forgotten fire-trap could be the source of a blaze that might wipe out the heart of a town. Fire is ever lurking, ever ready to strike. We, the people, can beat it to the punch.

One of the most painful experiences known to man is to come home to view the old family property after an absence of a number of years only to find that it has given way to a parking lot.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph.D.

ADDRESS CHILDREN IN LOW TONES

Children can easily turn off the radio and run away from most sounds. But they are rarely able to escape our voices, since they have to live with us.

In our homes most of us speak louder than we need to speak, and our voices often are painfully high pitched. When we are weary or annoyed, our voices go to higher keys, and nearly always they grow louder then. Our children imitate us, unaware. Not only do they imitate us, but the very annoyance which our ugly voices cause helps to make our children speak more noisily.

By yelling at a dog you can make him drop a bone or come to a sudden stop. It is the shock that does the trick. Also, you can make a baby stop at once, no matter what he may be doing, by a quick, sharp yell. Let us be more considerate of the animal and of the baby, too.

From early infancy the child associates pain with a loud and squeaky voice. When he is scolded or lectured or commanded sternly he hears these painful sounds as a big part of the punishment. As he grows older he observes that disagreements, quarrels and controversies between adults and children always are accompanied by ugly vocal sounds.

Pleasant Associations
When his mother cuddles and caresses him she uses soft and quiet speech. Love and affection always are associated in the mind of the infant, the child and the adult with tender tones. We can't imagine lovers wooing with loud words or their sweethearts answering with a squeaky voice.

So easily and so constantly do all human beings connect pleasure in their minds with gentle voices and pain with noisy ones, that voices which are soft and low tend to satisfy us and voices which are high annoy us.

Since we are human, unless we watch ourselves our voices come to be our enemies instead of our allies. Just at the time when we ought to speak most quietly and tenderly we are inclined to speak least so. Only as we discipline ourselves and stand on guard are we likely to speak so as to cause our children to feel comfortable and ready to co-operate with us.

Avoid Whining
Some parents, like some children, whine. They scold, admonish and exhort in whining tones. Much advice which should be good is neither heard nor heeded just because it is so often given when the parent is least fit to give it and the child least ready to receive it.

Let us make ourselves masters of our voices. When our children get most noisy we should speak most softly; when we feel most irritated we should strive to use our calmest speech.

When children grow very noisy we can quiet them by speaking almost in a whisper. The noisy school-room has a noisy teacher as a rule. She imagines her children best who speak most clearly and distinctly.

A selected list of books on understanding and guiding children at the various ages may be had without cost by writing me at 235 East 45th street, New York City, enclosing a self-addressed envelope with a three-cent stamp.

Solving Parent Problems
Q. Suppose one parent seems to the other to be very harsh and severe with their child.

A. Wisely, the other won't condemn the harsher parent in discipline of the child is in progress, but will quietly discuss it later with that parent in the absence of the child. If the more lenient parent will stiffen up and defend the child less, the more severe parent will grow more lenient.

The World and the Mud Puddles

HOW ABOUT IT HERE?

Rightly convinced that Anti-Nazi films are detrimental to their country's best interests, German authorities, consular agents and ambassadors in recent months have spared neither intimidations, threats nor money—where it would work to prevent the appearance of such movies in South American countries.

The Axis colonies, on the other hand, have been equally generous in the use of subsidies and political influence to the widespread distribution of German and Italian feature films and news reels extolling the totalitarian way of life. Thus far, the score is heavily in the Axis' favor.

Due to its pressure, Argentina and Brazil have recently forbade the showing of anti-Nazi pictures, comic or otherwise, lest it "wound the sentiments" of certain foreign powers. In the capital cities of other South American nations, no small number of American-made films to which Axis officials objected have been banned. There is, of course, nothing strange in the fact that totalitarian agents in this hemisphere should seek to suppress pictures showing their countries in an unfavorable light. But it is interesting proof of the zeal and thoroughness with which Axis powers seek to maintain their influence in the western world.

There are some United States congressmen very much disturbed, seemingly, by anti-Nazi moving pictures. Could it be possible they are incited to do this by Herr Hitler and Company?

Dairymen have long maintained that you get out of a cow what you feed into her. Goes to show where a cow is unlike a slot machine.

Two things now have to be considered when building a factory. One is a parking lot and the other is a place for the employees to eat.

"I had to change my seat several times at the movies," said a flapper. "Gracious did a man get fresh?" "Well, finally."

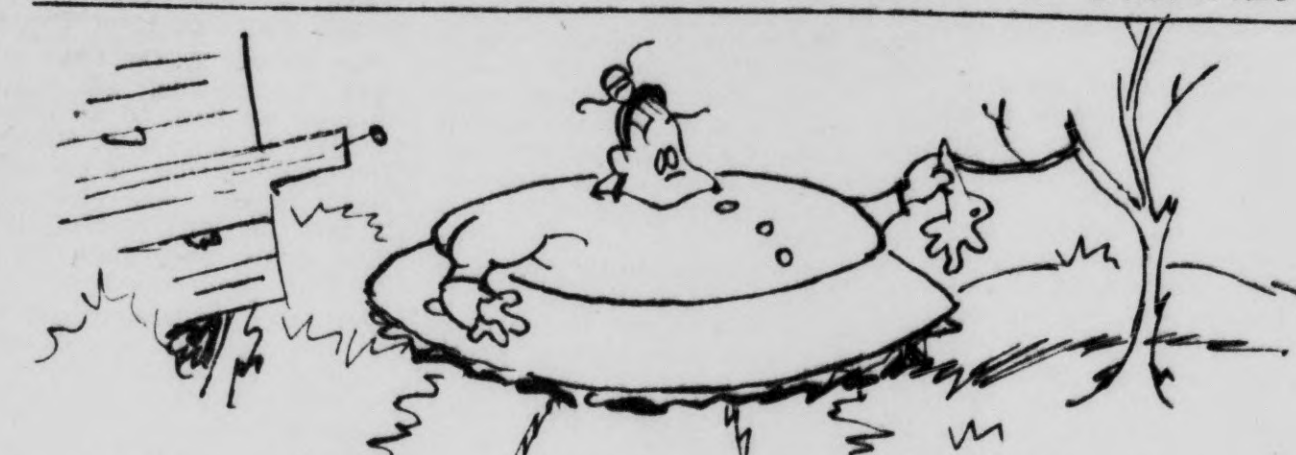

When building a new house it is a good idea to build it so it will be easy to get out of if it catches on fire.

HINTS AND DINTS

Sun sets tonight 4:54. Sun rises tomorrow 6:34.

SAME OLD COON!

The Hints and Dints man got a nice bunch of dahlias yesterday. They were given to us by Harry Leathers who lives on the Butler road on the Wellar Hill. He has 69 varieties of dahlias and sends bulbs all over the country. He advertises. We sure do appreciate the fine flowers he gave us and they are so nice.

A man in Wisconsin husked 1,619 pounds of corn in 80 minutes. But he could get more than 30 cents an hour on a farm.

A colored preacher was hearing confession. In the middle of it he stopped and said to the young sinner, "Young man, you ain't confessed, you're braggin'!"

People who always expect to pay for things they want are surprised and pleased when given something they want.

A woman got on a Mill street car with five children. She busied herself seating them. A sailor arose and gave her his seat. The sailor asked "Are all those children yours, Madam, or is it a picnic?" "Woman (snappingly) "They are all mine and it's no picnic."

Let's make sure we keep the things worth fighting for.

It may surprise you to learn that the modern automobile contains 1,200 parts. Some of them sound like they had more parts than that.

Speaker: "Nothing that is false ever does anybody any good." Old Man: "You are wrong, stranger. I have false teeth and they do me a lot of good."

The worst of sinners still worries about the sins of his friends. He's afraid they won't stay as pure in heart as he is.

Hitler's South American Map No Surprise
Officials Already Knew They Were Marked
Smaller Nations Show Most Concern Of All

By CHARLES P. STEWART

Central Press Columnist

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Latin American diplomatic representatives in Washington have manifested little curiosity concerning the map President Roosevelt recently said he had in his possession, outlining the plan Herr Hitler's declared to have in mind for a reorganization of their home governments, the absorption of several of the western hemisphere's southern republics by certain of the others and the general systemization of their affairs in Germany's interest.

The reason for this seeming indifference appears to be that new world Latin officials already knew what Adolf was scheming for them, and consequently didn't need to be told from the White House. It's even reported that some of their embassies and legations have maps of their own, and maybe are better posted as to the Fuehrer's intended program than P. D. R. is.

From sotto voce remarks by their spokesmen in this country it's evident the dictator of Germany is entirely disapproving of the Nazi dictator's proposed scrambling and re-allocation of their respective territories. The little nations, like Uruguay, Paraguay, Bolivia, Ecuador and Panama, naturally don't take to the idea of being completely wiped out as separate entities, as contemplated under Adolf's formula. Such of the bigger ones as Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Venezuela, Colombia and Peru would be correspondingly enlarged in area and resources, but would lose all but nominal independence under complete Nazi domination, through local quislings.

While the Latin Americans require little additional information from Washington, their own investigations having familiarized them with Adolf's intentions for their future, the curious, at a look at the president's map is very victorious in the United States.

Protecting the Source
The explanation given for withholding it is that it can't be shown publicly without disclosing to Berlin the source that it came from, which immediately would land that source in exceedingly hot water. Presumably it's in Germany itself or in some German-occupied region, where Adolf could get at it—and, of course, what he'd do to it would be aptly. As a source, it wouldn't be good thereafter.

The presidential reference to a German document he has, sketching a plan for suppression of the world's religions, also is rated in Washington as being calculated to impress the Nazis, the southern republics being staunch Catholics.

In this connection it's suggested that the notion of religious suppression can't but hit Dictator Franco of Spain most unpleasantly. Franco, hitherto a sympathizer with the Axis, succeeded in upsetting the Spanish republican government largely on the religious issue. The Republicans had been bitterly anti-church, whose numerous followers among the Spaniards fought for the present dictator largely on the religious issue. Now to have it appear that Herr Hitler's bitter anti-religious campaign is pretty embarrassing to the supposedly good Catholics they supported and who, of late, has been a near-ally of Adolf.

Francisco's agents, incidentally, are believed to be working to have the matter of appeals to the new world countries.

The Axis pair can suppress what they don't like in Germany and Italy, but they can't do it in this hemisphere. The press on this side of the Atlantic is as free in the United States and it's taken for granted that Yankee presidential charges of a Nazi plot to reorganize their republics for Germany's benefit are bound to get a rip-roaringly conspicuous play in Latin American newspapers. Whether believed or not, they can gamble on a lot of attention.

Report New 'Miracle Drug' Is Discovered

(International News Service)
BOSTON, Nov. 5.—A new "miracle drug," said to be one hundred thousand times more powerful than the sulfanilamide group and hailed as a positive cure for pneumonia infections and streptococcus, was revealed today at the 31st annual clinical congress of the American College of Surgeons.

The new substance, called "gramicidin," a bacterial product taken from soil cacti, is, according to surgeons, so good that it is "too good"—its tremendous potency is a drawback and at present it can be used only in local applications. It is too powerful to inject into the blood.

Discoverer was Rene J. DuBois, of the Rockefeller Institute, who obtained it in 1939. Experiments with it have been made by Doctors Charles H. Rammekamp and Chester S. Keefer, of Massachusetts hospital and Boston university school of medicine, whose paper on the "miracle drug" was read to the surgical congress.

News And Views From Pennsylvania Capital

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Nov. 5.—The James administration is spending an average of $11,044,434 a month for the general expenses of the state government, a report by Auditor General P. Clair Ross reveals from June until September 30 a total of $48,177,736.07 was spent by the various departments falling under the jurisdiction of Gov. Arthur H. James. . . $279,960,483.93 in appropriations remained available on October 1 for the remainder of the biennium, compared to a total 1941-43 appropriation of $328,138,220.

These expenditures are exclusive of money spent from special state funds, such as the fish, game and motor funds, and vary from month to month. . . thus, in September $18,213,618.39 was expended, more than six million dollars above the average. . . The greatest expenditures are being made by the Department of Public Assistance, followed respectively by the Department of Public Instruction and the Department of Welfare. . . During September these were the only departments spending more than a million dollars a month.

Major General Edward Martin, commanding officer of the 28th Division, is expected to return to his post of adjutant general of Pennsylvania if he decides not to accept a desk job with the army. . . Martin is due to be retired from the army upon the return of the 28th Division from first army maneuvers in South Carolina, having passed the age limit of 62 years for officers of his rank. . . Brig.-Gen. Robert M. Vail, of Wilkes-Barre, is now temporarily filling the $10,000-a-year cabinet post. . . With the news that Martin would retire from active army duty came a recurrence of earlier reports, none of them verified, that the former Republican state chairman might be a candidate for governor next year. . . The discovery by Walter A. Jones, chairman of the Pennsylvania turnpike commission, that he will bolt the Democratic party in the event it nominates S. Sen. Joseph F. Guffey as a candidate for governor next year did not unduly alarm party leaders. . . Jones, while prominent in the state, is not known to have any political organization. . . He has been an outstanding contributor to the Democratic party's campaign chest, but outside of his unsuccessful venture into politics in the 1939 primary election, he has not been active politically. . . In his first attempt at public office he was decisively beaten by Senator Guffey.

Pennsylvania's secretary of labor and industry, Lewis G. Hines, was delegated by the International Association of Governmental Labor Officials to represent it at the worldwide conference of the League of Nations' international labor organization which opened in New York on October 27. . . The final meeting will be held at the White House on November 6.

Jewett Addresses Local Lions Club

Greater New Castle Association Leader Talks On Civic Responsibilities

Roger W. Jewett, executive vice president of the Greater New Castle Association gave a splendid address on Civic Responsibility before the New Castle Lions club at its noon luncheon, Tuesday. . . Mr. Jewett stressed the importance of voting in order to elect the right type of city and county officials, those who will carry out civic betterment programs for the best interests of the community in which they live. He spoke of the need of eliminating the traffic bottleneck in the downtown district of New Castle in particular.

He also touched on the planning program of the Greater New Castle Association, and urged the Lions club members to help to bring tourists and conventions to New Castle, not only from a standpoint of adding to business, but in order to acquaint strangers with the splendid industrial facilities New Castle possesses.

He stressed the point that local residents were not taking advantage of telling the outside world of the splendid resources that the community has, and believed that the community is not supplying the national market as well as it might.

E. L. WILSON IS CALLED AWAY BY RELATIVES DEATH

E. L. Wilson of South Ray street has been called to Greensburg by the death of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson, 80.

Mr. Wilson plans to remain in Greensburg until after the funeral services have been conducted.

An All-Time High for New Castle

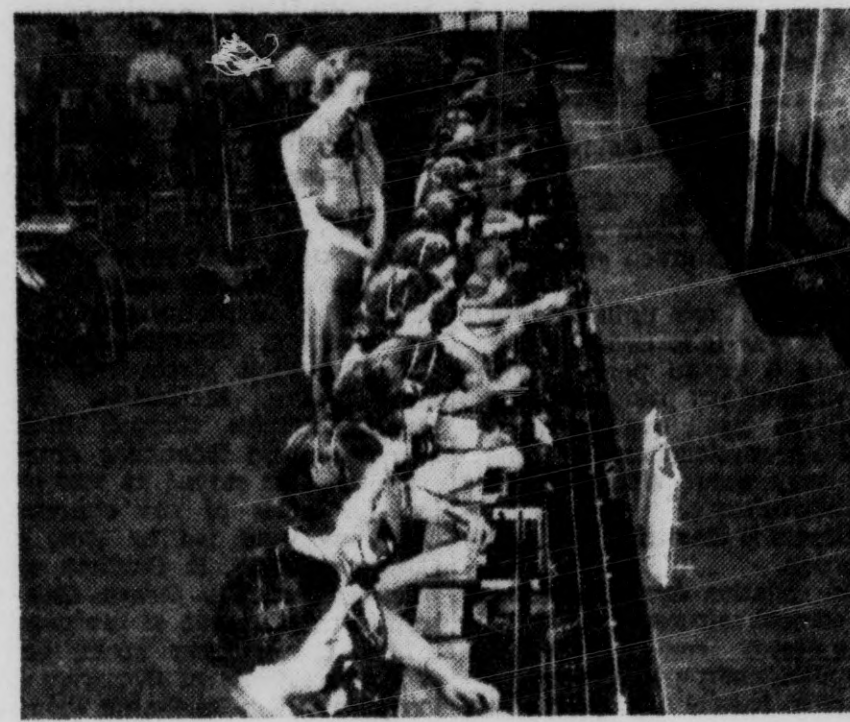

NOW 67,000 CALLS A DAY!

IN NEW CASTLE, as throughout Pennsylvania, the mounting volumes of telephone calls have reached record proportions. Compared with a year ago, an average of 9,300 more calls daily are being made from New Castle telephones. Out-of-town calls are up 27 per cent. Local calls are up 15 per cent. And in the first eight months of 1941, growth in the number of New Castle telephones was five times that in the same period of 1940.

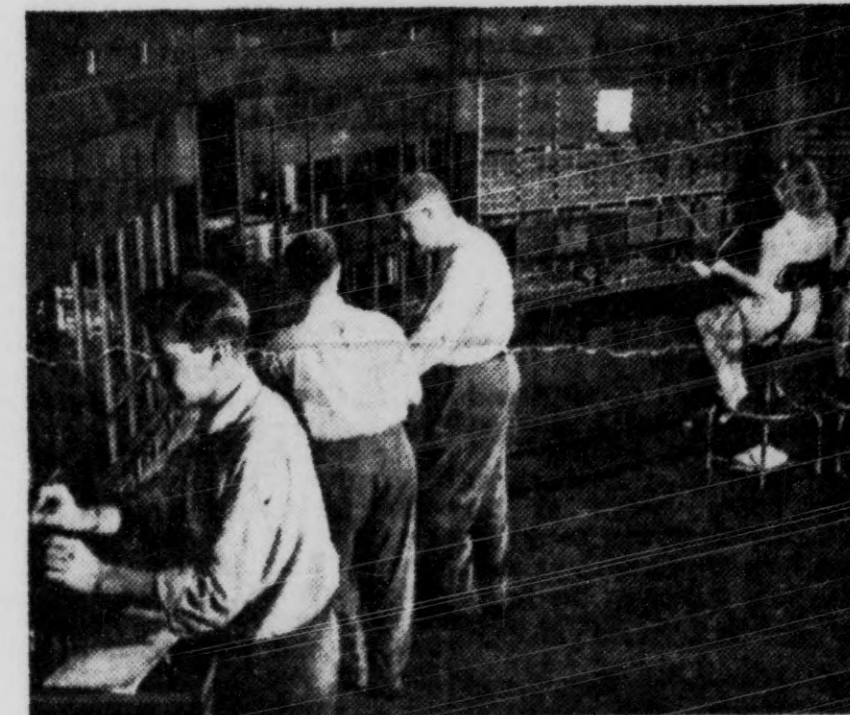

To handle these greatly increased loads, we have added 48 new employees to the New Castle forces since the start of the year, and we have made additions to our switchboard in the central office. And we are planning to enlarge our switchboards still further this winter and next March.

We are sparing neither time, money nor manpower in an all-out drive to keep telephone service in New Castle—and throughout the State—in step with the great and growing needs of home and office, factory and mill, and to meet the all-important demands of national defense.

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF PENNSYLVANIA

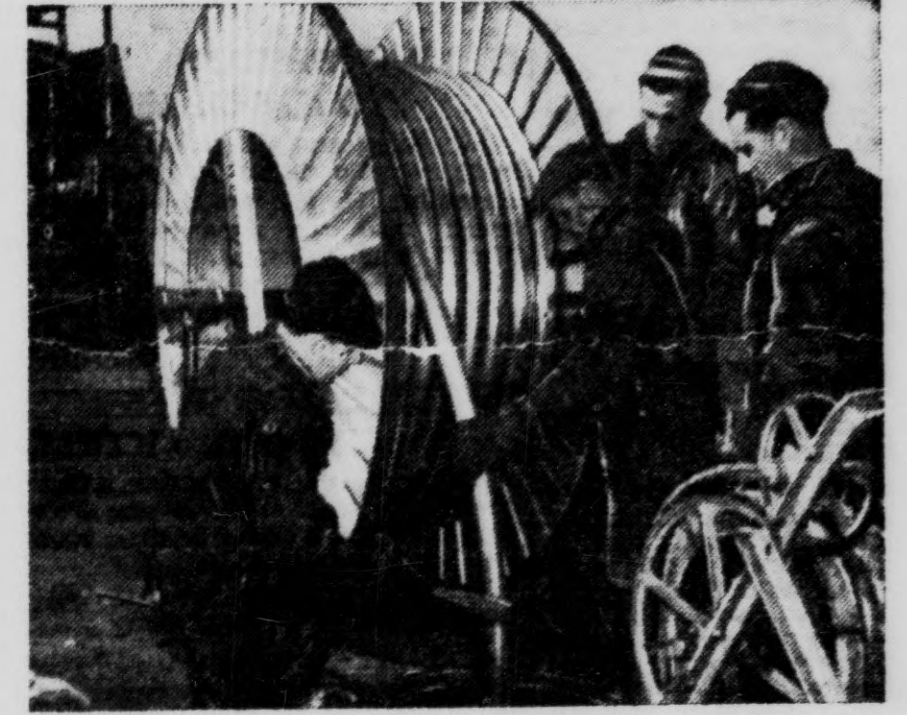

The toll switchboard in the New Castle Central Office, where local and out-of-town calls are now handled at the rate of 67,000 a day! To handle this volume of calls, 44 new operators have been added to the force so far this year. Peak periods are 9:30 to 11:30 in the morning; 2 to 4 in the afternoon; 7 to 8 in the evening.

The tremendous increase in telephone traffic has required major additions in many telephone central offices. Here are some of the skilled workmen from the Western Electric Company—manufacturer and supplier for the Bell System—installing intricate equipment to enlarge a switchboard, while operators put through calls at the right.

To handle the ever-growing flood of calls, we employed about 2,000 new operators in Pennsylvania since the start of the year. New operators must be given weeks of careful training and put through a thousand or more practice calls before they can take their places with the experienced operators at the switchboard.

This scene is duplicated hundreds of times throughout Pennsylvania, as telephone linemen rush construction of many miles of cable to supply more circuits to handle more calls. Since the start of this year, we added 175,000 miles of wire in cable to Pennsylvania's telephone network. That much more will be built before the year is over!

Your cooperation as a telephone user will play an important part in "speeding the service that speeds defense."

These suggestions will help you and other telephone users save time.

1. When there is any doubt about a number, look in the directory and make sure you have the right one before you call.

2. Answer your telephone promptly.

3. When you make a call, give the called party enough time to answer before you "hang up."

4. Avoid unnecessarily long conversations—especially on party lines.

5. Be sure your telephone is properly replaced after every call. Thank you!

Naval Air Force Will Be Doubled

Want More Than 20,000 Pilots And 15,000 First-Line Fighting Planes

Expect 10,200 More Student Fliers Will Be Graduated In 1943

By HAROLD SLATER
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—The U. S. Navy today is planning to double its air force until it has more than 20,000 pilots and 15,000 first-line fighting planes by July 1943 as part of its two-ocean fleet program.

The navy now has 5,823 full-fledged pilots and 5,135 cadets in training. Its pilot-training program is being stepped up so that 10,200 more fliers will be graduated from its air schools by the middle of 1943.

Latest—and what will be the last—figures to be announced by the navy revealed its air strength at approximately 4,100 planes and disclosed that 5,800 ships are on order. No further reports will be made because, under President Roosevelt's policy, plane deliveries to the armed forces will be a military secret.

Delivery By 1943
However, it is known that 10,500 more combat airplanes are scheduled to be delivered to the fleet by the middle of July 1943. Counting training ships, planes lost in crashes and obsolescence, the total number of first-line fighting planes expected to be on hand then will be "in excess of 15,000," according to navy reports.

The navy already has told the White House and O. P. M. production officials that its pilot training program will keep ahead of deliveries.

Including ground crews, the navy air force will total more than 200,000 men in the next two years. This is in contrast to the total force of 266,629 men in the marines and navy both at the present time.

Meanwhile, the army also is building up its air force. Secretary of War Stimson recently announced that the air arm was being doubled to 400,000, and later would be increased to 500,000. Ultimately, to man the number of ships it will receive the army will be forced to recruit more than 1,000,000 men into the air force.

Counting naval strength, the U. S. armed forces then will be composed of more than 1,500,000 men and more than 73,000 airplanes. But it is far off—by July 1943 at the very earliest and probably not until 1944.

(From the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania)

Epilepsy, or "falling sickness" is a tragic condition.

First described by Hippocrates during the Fourth Century, B. C. He did not give much encouragement for a cure.

He said cure was unlikely when the disease was inherited.

Or when a grown person developed it without any previous cause. In epilepsy there are sudden attacks of unconsciousness.

These may occur either with or without convulsions.

The disease is classified as a nervous disorder.

Certain sedative drugs have been used to control seizures.

The sufferer from epilepsy deserves understanding treatment.

He is sick, fearful and finds difficulty in holding a job.

There has never been any specific "cure" for epilepsy.

Samuel Badger Named Supervisor In Shenango Twp.

One of the township fights that attracted some attention in the election on Tuesday was that for supervisor in Shenango township.

Frank E. Smith, who has been in office for some years, was defeated by Samuel V. Badger, an uncle of Sheriff-Elect Clyde D. Badger Smith, running on the Democratic ticket, received 364 votes, while Badger, the Republican candidate received 460.

Alderman Biondi Re-Elected Tuesday

Of all the fights in the election of Tuesday, perhaps the most spirited in New Castle was that for the aldermanship of the eighth ward. Alderman B. J. Biondi, Republican incumbent, was opposed for the office by Thomas George on the Democratic ticket.

Alderman Biondi won the contest handsily, polling 960 votes to 650 for George. In the first precinct Alderman Biondi got 379 votes and George 98. In the second precinct Biondi got 269 and George 324. In the third precinct Biondi got 312 votes and George 228.

The eighth ward has 2272 registered voters. On Tuesday 1610 of them voted, a percentage of 73 much higher than most of the other precincts of the city or county.

Torrance Hails Election Result

Decisive Plurality Given Republican Candidates In State-Wide Election

HARRISBURG, Nov. 5.—Republican victories at the polls in the state's off-year election were hailed by Republican State Chairman James F. Torrance today as "a blunt rebuff to the forces of wrong-way government."

Torrance said: "The decisive plurality given the Republican statewide judiciary is a gratifying indication that the principles of representative government still survive in Pennsylvania and that the people, by their vote, have delivered a blunt rebuff to the forces of wrong-way government."

"This victory is a testimonial to the vast army of Republican workers who through faith in their cause have repudiated the autocratic influences aimed against the American tradition of liberty and independence."

Republicans won state supreme and superior court contests and important local fights but lost the majority battle in Pittsburgh where Democrat Cornelius D. Scully was re-elected.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 5.—Democrats and Republicans divided the two most important mayoralty races in yesterday's municipal election in Pennsylvania, according to late returns today.

In Pittsburgh, the state's second largest city, Mayor Cornelius D.
Scully, Democrat, was re-elected for a second four-year term by a margin of 3,684 votes over his Republican opponent, Harman D. Denny
Jr., youthful newcomer to Allegheny county politics. In Scranton, the third largest city in the state, Howard J. Snowden, Republican, nosed out State Sen. Edward J. Coleman Democrat, by 737 votes. There was no mayoralty election this year in Philadelphia.

Other Mayoralty Elections

28 years.

Duquesne—Elmer J. Malloy, Demo-

WILDCAT ON CAMPUS

(International News Service)
BERKELEY, Calif.—If you happen to walk through the University of California campus some afternoon and a furry small animal leaps at you from behind some shrubbery, it's probably a wildcat.
Known as Tigga, the animal belonged to a student who takes him for an outing on the wooded campus every day. Tigga was captured at the age of two weeks in the Stanislaus forest near Yosemite National Park.

Group From St. Mary's Church
Begins To Prepare Christmas Seals For Mail

Lawrence County Tuberculosis Society office in the Lawrence Savings & Trust Company building was a busy place Tuesday, as the packing of the 1941 Christmas Seals, in preparation for the coming seal sale, got under way.

An energetic group of women from St. Mary's church with Mrs. Harry J. Stenger, as chairman, added another year to their many years of service to the tuberculosis society drive in Lawrence county.

A covered dish luncheon was enjoyed by the group at noon, and the afternoon hours were spent in folding letters, seals and filling envelopes.

No one knows better the value of health than the mother and homemaker and she knows that the surest way to maintain that health is through eradication of disease from a community and through a well balance diet for the family. These women have learned that tuberculosis can be eradicated and that the Lawrence County Tuberculosis society is playing a large part in this drive by giving tuberculin tests in schools and industries in the county.
Those working with Mrs. Stenger were: Mrs. Fred Flynn, Mrs. W. A.
Confer, Mrs. N. Willis Flynn, Mrs.
Leo J. Gahles, Mrs. Frank Gribben,

Mrs. W. I. Kelly, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Dolan, Mrs. M. P. McCann,
Mrs. J. S. Olson and Mrs. Paul Forney.

third great year and has proved its advantages through hundreds of millions of miles in the hands of 130,000 Oldsmobile owners. Hydra-Matic is still the only "drive" that offers completely automatic shifting through four forward speeds. Although Oldsmobile will produce the new B-44

for defense, all models will be available with Hydra-Matic Drive. Come, take a look at the B-44. It's styled

Lawrence County And New Castle Quotas Total 105 Men

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, Nov. 5.—Governor Arthur H. James on Tuesday received a revised requisition from the U. S. Army, calling for the delivery of 12,733 selective service registrants to army examination stations between Nov. 24 and Dec. 20. At the same time, the U. S. Army cancelled a previous requisition for 2,339 men to report for final type examination between Nov. 13 and 18.

German Ruhr And Rhineland Bombed By R.A.F.

(International News Service) LONDON, Nov. 5.—Industrial districts of the German Ruhr and Rhineland and docks at German-occupied Ostend and Dunkirk were bombed last night, the air ministry announced today.

A large enemy supply ship was declared to have been hit by a bomb off Terschelling. One British plane was listed as missing.

WOULD CHARGE DOORBELL PESTS NICKEL A RING

(International News Service) LAKEWOOD, O.—The government men have been talking about self-liquidating projects for so long that it has finally made an impression upon an inventor, Murray P. Torrence has recently been issued a patent on a coin-controlled doorbell device.

Here's the idea—A magazine solicitor, collector, or one's mother-in-law pays the home a visit. Light heartedly bounding up the front steps in anticipation of a cheery welcome, the caller is confronted with the Torrence doodad which stops them in their tracks.

In order to attract the attention of the householder it is necessary to drop a nickel in the doorbell device and then if the coin is not a phoney you press the button and the bell rings as of yore. In other words—no nickel no ring. And if no ring then no answer to the door. Of course, if no one answers, the bell rings gets his money back.

One thrifty housewife has suggested that she might entertain five days a week. The coin in the front door gadget to pay for the bridge prizes and eats.

The government of Peru is studying the possibilities of establishing a local rubber industry, the Department of Commerce reported.

Red Cross Chapter Hears Reports At Monthly Meeting

Roll Call Reports And Chapter Activities Discussed Tuesday Evening

Monthly board meeting of the Lawrence county chapter of the American Red Cross was held in the chapter house Tuesday evening with a splendid representation of not only the city chairmen of the various services but the chairmen of the outlying county districts.

Very encouraging reports were made on all of the Roll Call activities by Mrs. Elizabeth Miller of the Hillsville district who is assisted by Mrs. Bertha Smith. Donald Cole of Princeton division, Charles Grunewald of New Bedford district, Mrs. J. H. Johnston, Mrs. N. E. Sampson and Mrs. Clarence McFarland of New Wilmington township all reported enthusiastic rallies in all of the branches.

The yearly financial statement was presented by Norman E. Clark treasurer of the chapter. The home service report shows a great increase in the active service cases being handled by the chapter. This department performed 1,088 units of service and acted on 200 cases in the month of October.

Mrs. Harry L. Gormley reported on an excellent residential program with 400 to 500 volunteers organized in the various wards to serve in the coming Roll Call.

Dr. Bennett gave a very comprehensive report of the Council of Social Agencies.

Following the business meeting of the chapter, Red Cross awards in the form of the new service pin were made to:

Ralph F. Davis, N. E. Clark, Dr. G. S. Bennett, J. G. Berry, George Reid, H. J. Cullford, Charles Brest, Charles E. Allen, Mrs. C. J. Kirk, Mrs. William Cosel, Mrs. W. W. Duff, Mrs. L. E. Springer, Mrs. J. E. Elliott and Mrs. Robert Garland.

Girls' Athletic Club Has Meeting

High School Group Hears Reports On Activities Of Organization Tuesday Evening

Members of the Girls Athletic club of the Senior High school met in the school Tuesday evening when reports on activities were given and the new officers took their places. Miss Margaret P. Fischer, faculty advisor, opened the meeting by introducing the new officers, Phyllis Pugh, president; Helen Venditto, vice president; Pat Preston, secretary; Marian Waddington, treasurer, and Edice Norris, corresponding secretary.

Miss Pugh then took charge of the meeting, and called for reports of the officers. The question of membership was referred to a committee. With the money earned from the sale of candy at the high school, and football programs, the club is making quilts for the British War Relief. Each unit meets one night a week to work on the quilts. A hike was planned for the near future, and the girls also decided to issue a club newspaper, which will be a future project. The balance of the evening was devoted to games.

K. Of C. Day Of Prayer For Peace Sunday, November 9

Council And Holy Name So-cieties Will Attend Com-munion Breakfast Fol-lowing Mass

Members of the local council of the Knights of Columbus will sponsor their annual day of Prayer for Peace, Sunday, November 9, at the request of His Holiness Pope Pius XII. Three years ago it was re-quested of the council to sponsor this day of Prayer For Peace, each year on the Sunday nearest, Novem-ber 11.

Sunday morning, council mem-bers will enjoy their communion breakfast in the K. of C. Home North Jefferson street, at 9 o'clock. All members of the K. of C. and Holy Name Societies of the Catholic churches are invited to attend this breakfast, following mass and re-ceiving of communion in their re-spective churches.

A special request has expressed that every man, woman, and child attend mass and communion on Sunday, November 9, and pray for peace the world over. The Knights of Columbus will distribute, as in past years, the Prayer for Peace card, as designated by His Holiness Pope Pius XII.

Crows Are Foiled By Novel Plan

Owen Fox, city forester, listened to an interesting bird story, a few days ago, told by a bird lover.

The latter had a guinea hen, that was raising a brood of young, with-in a brush pile, on his place in the country.

He had noticed that some crows got in the habit of frequenting the location of the brush pile, and oc-casionally swooped down, picked up a peep, and carried it away.

The man racked his brain for some device whereby he might put a stop to this marauding by these birds, who are somewhat akin to the vultures of the south.

Knowing that crows are naturally very suspicious, he secured a ball of white twine, and strung a strand of the twine, about five feet from the ground, from tree to tree, that sur-rounded the brush pile.

The crows, who probably had watched the operation, later, would fly down from the trees and up, again, but never below the twine, doubtless suspecting that a trap had been laid for them.

From that time forward the guinea peeps were not molested, and the brood was successfully raised.

Tenth Victory Goal Of Locals Friday Evening

New Castle Preparing For Battle Here At Taggart Stadium With Ohio East

CRIPPLED LIST BEING REDUCED

New Castle High "Red Hurricane" football team with nine straight wins in the bag, will strive with all they have here at Taggart stadium on Friday night to make it ten in a row by defeating a scrappy Youngstown East High eleven. The kickoff at 8 o'clock will find a large crowd on hand.

The New Castle cripples are on the mend and practically a full varsity team with maybe one or two exceptions can be started against the Ohio invaders. New Castle is not holding this East team too lightly. East has always been tough for the locals to upset.

Will Seek Revenge

Beaten here last season 19 to 7, a fighting East High eleven will come to the stadium Friday night bent on seeking revenge. Coach Dick Barrett has been pointing his East charges for the big game at New Castle.

Head Coach Phil Bridenbaugh is being lenient with the squad this week, no heavy scrimmage sessions being on the program. A little blocking and play-timing is being undertaken. Pass defense is being particularly stressed this week, as East High always has had a very fine passing attack, having defeated New Castle a few years ago on a clever last minute pass.

Tickets have been placed on sale at the Sporting Goods store and in the event of a nice night, the stands will no doubt be well filled. As East High will bring several hundred fans and students here for the game, also with their fine band directed by a local young man, Terry Carson.

DEWEY A. C. TO MEET

The Dewey A. C. members will hold a meeting this evening at the Dewey A. C. club house, it is announced by Nick Padice, president of the club.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS LAND

Today the writer received a letter from his son, Ed Fritz, Jr., who is with the Engineers at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo. It concerns Joe Gilles, former heavyweight sparring partner of Red Burman who is also in the Fourth Platoon of Co. A, 6th Group 29th Battalion, E. R. T. C. It reads:

"Joe Gilles, former sparring partner of Red Burman, is in our company. He has had about 50 professional fights but before turning pro was amateur heavyweight champion of Wisconsin, Maryland and Virginia.

A few nights ago he participated in a bout here and defeated a Golden Gloves champion from California. The latter's name is Hayes. Joe weighed 185 and Hayes weighed 255.

"Joe is difficult to hit. He weaves and bobs and continually keeps his opponent off balance. He has a beautiful left hook and had Hayes on the verge of a knockout in the last round.

"He delivered a left hook that actually lifted Hayes off his feet, at least a foot. We are grooming him for the championship of this army corps of engineers and he certainly ought to make it.

"In his second and when I come home I am going to bring him with me. You will like him. He is a construction engineer by occupation. He had a manager there but I forgot his name."

According to the letter, Jack Cooper, also of New Castle, who is with the 3rd Division, is getting along fine. Cooper played saxophone in New Castle orchestra, and now plays at the fort. He is detailed as a clerk having been employed in that capacity with the Johnson Bronze in this city.

According to the letter the boys are getting along good. They say they are treated well, have fine officers and the latter look after the welfare of their men.

"In conclusion the letter reads: 'I won a medal on the rifle range and have been rifle coach for the platoon for some time and I am acting corporal. I am in good physical condition and weigh 185 stripped.'

Prior to military service, Fritz Jr. was employed in the Engineers department of the Pennsylvania Power company and served also as a deputy commissioner of the Pennsylvania Boxing and Wrestling commission.

Fred Record of Philadelphia, who has a record of more than 400 rowing victories, has a formula for longevity. "You can live as long as you like if you want to bad enough. Shucks, I'll make 100 easily," he asserted. He took the oars in a four-oared shell at a spin up the Schuylkill to celebrate his 92nd birthday Saturday.

Tommy Harmon has been notified that he is eligible for induction under the draft November 19, unless he enlists on or before November 8. Challeon is being groomed for a comeback on California tracks. Booker Beckwith and Bob Pastor will fight a heavyweight bout in Chicago Friday night. Local boxers are training for a show here November 19.

W. L. Brann's Pictor, one of the disappointing 3-year-olds, continued his remarkable comeback yesterday by driving to a length victory in the $10,000 Riggs handicap for his fifth stake triumph. Corydon finished second and Halter third at Baltimore. Pictor was timed in 1:53 for the mile and 2-16 course. Ball Player and Sir Alfred also ran.

SPORTS WORLD RAMBLINGS

Wednesday "p.m." sports edition:

This Class AA WPAL race operates like a taxi meter. Every time you look, it seems to change. A few days ago, New Castle was comfortable perched at the top of the heap. Then came a victory over Scott and Zingo went the "Hurricane" into fourth place, at least that's what those brave gents who tackle those figures report. . . .

By winning, New Castle dropped into fourth. We'd hate to think what a defeat would have done. Anyhow, the latest figure juggling discloses that Mt. Lebanon (where did it come from?) and Altoona lead the circuit with 125 points. Johnstown and Connellsville follow with 120 markers and then comes New Castle with 119 points. Turtle Creek hosts down the next slot with 118 points. . . .

Johnny George, the ex-Y.M.C.A. wrestling star, is now a first lieutenant in the Philippine Islands. George served on the wrestling staff at the University of Illinois before answering the call to colors. He's serving as physical director. . . . Louis George, of 109 East Home street, is on the University of Illinois wrestling team. . . .

Game is never over department: With only a second left, Frank Sinkwich, Georgia back, flipped a 50 yard aerial which netted the Georgians a 7-0 win over Auburn, last Saturday. . . . Harry Stuhldreher, Wisconsin coach, once played quarterback at Massillon high. Next Saturday, he'll lead his Badgers against Ohio State, piloted by Paul Brown, ex-Massillon high mentor. . . .

Hats off to the Detroit Tiger baseball club. When it came time to split $5,927.31, the "Tigers" World Series cut, the squad voted a full share to "Hank" Greenberg. The cut amounted to $167.46. . . . Penn State's soccer team has a better record than Joe DiMaggio. The Nittany Lion athletes have strung together 63 triumphs in a row. . . .

Carl Snavely has guided Cornell university football teams to 141 victories, 42 defeats and 14 deadlocks. . . . Paul Brown's son, Robin, aged 9, is a football star on a fourth grade school eleven. Says he wants to play on Ohio State when he grows up. Smart boy. . . . The first five National League pro games lured 121,664 spectators. . . .

Well Known Fight Manager Is Dead

(International News Service) NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Funeral arrangements were being made today for Lou Brown, veteran boxing manager, who died of a heart attack yesterday on his 49th birthday. Brown who once ran up a $250,000 fortune in the fight world, and then lost it all on Wall Street, is survived by his widow, Hattie, and son, Stanford, a New York university student.

Place Tickets On Sale Today For Junior High Championship Game At Stadium

EXPECT BIG CROWD TO WITNESS GAME

Good weather prevailing, the stands at Taggart stadium will be filled with football fans and students next Monday night at the kickoff at 8 o'clock as Ben Franklin High seeks to throttle a powerhouse George Washington High eleven in the annual junior high championship grid battle.

Not for the past five years has Franklin High been able to take the measure of the North Hillers, Coach Austin Cowmeadow announced today, "but just watch our smoke in the game next Monday night."

Franklin High is planning a defense that will throttle the great-running Washington halfback, Albert Knight, who carries the brunt of the offense on the North Hill squad. Knight is highly touted as a fast running and clever ball carrier, being able to reverse his field like a veteran.

"Stop this man Knight and we will stop the whole Wash High team," Head Coach Cowmeadow has told his East Siders. "We will have a few boys ourselves that the Washington team had better watch. I mean Jacobs, Roscoe Williams, Cone and Pedula, all plenty tough boys," the popular Franklin High coach told The News today.

Tickets On Sale Part of the proceeds of the game will go to help Coach Arthur Alexander of Washington High defray his hospital expenses. The popular North Hill mentor is now recuperating from a severe pneumonia attack in the Jameson hospital. Bill Klee and George "Gig" Thomas will handle the Washington team next Monday.

Tickets for the game have been placed on sale at the Sporting Goods store for the adults at 25 cents each (tax included). The student tickets selling for 10 cents will be on sale in all three junior highs and also senior high.

To Play On Saturday

BILL SCHEID

NEW WILMINGTON, Nov. 5.—Sophomore Halfback Bill Scheid will probably get another chance to "do his stuff" in the Westminster Titan lineup this Saturday against Grove City's Crimson eleven, because of his excellent showing in last Saturday's game against the Juniata Indians which the Titans won 27-12.

A Philadelphia sophomore, Scheid pulled a perfect execution of the well-worn "Statue of Liberty" play working with Captain Pete Evanoff which almost resulted in a Westminster touchdown in the final period. In addition, Scheid intercepted a Juniata pass and ran the ball well.

The Grover-Titan game is called for 2 o'clock this Saturday, with a record crowd expected. It will be Westminster's 87th annual homecoming.

Church League Teams Practice

The following schedule of practice sessions for the New Castle church basketball league teams has been set for tonight by William "Butch" Winters, "Y" physical director:

7 to 8 p. m.—Central Christians and Central Presbyterians, 8 to 9 p. m.—Epworth and St. Marys.

9 to 10 p. m.—First Baptists and Third U. P.

All players must be prompt in reporting.

STILL GROWING CLEVELAND, O.—In sophomore Ed Ecker, giant tackle from St. Ignatius high, John Carroll, one of the largest men in collegiate football, Ed weighs 276, is 6'6" tall, and is still growing.

But if our P-40 standard first-line pursuit planes are "as good as any," why is it that the British won't even uncrate them?

TRIPLE THREAT—Senior Phil Ahwesh of Duquesne is one of the standout backs in east. He is a Canonsburg, Pa., product.

Pitt Preparing To Meet Fordham

Serious Injuries Cripple Pitt For Game On Saturday—Great Team

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 5.—Up against another one of those underdogs this week face the task of halting Fordham's Eight Horsemen, the octet of ball-carrying wizards from Rose Hill in the Bronx.

To start the week of preparation off, Coach Charley Bowser announced the first off-day of the season thus far, the Pitt mentor holding his charges only long enough for a brief blackboard session.

Once again there were no serious injuries to report. Sophomore Guard Bill Dillon, who was in the lineup when the Panthers put on their second quarter scoring march and was forced out by a face injury, is expected to be ready to go by Wednesday.

On the basis of their play against Ohio State, the members of the Pitt starting lineup will be the same, except at left guard, where Dillon is very likely to get the starting job over George Mitchell.

Frank Saksa made the best impression of any Panther fullback that has gone into action thus far this season and appears to have a firm grip on the starting assignment, and the same goes for Jack Durishan, big sophomore left tackle.

Fordham's starting backfield before the season is over may well rate with the great Notre Dame outfit of 1930, for it has everything this report of Scout Curly Stebbins being confirmed by about every one who has seen Jim Crowley's Rams in action.

FRISCH DIE BACK Frankie Frisch, peppery manager of the Pirates, is due back in Pittsburgh this week, and faces another operation—this time for correction of some foot trouble from an old baseball injury.

Raymond Clapper says he used to be an isolationist. Now he merely wishes to keep out of the war.

Pigskin Pageant Near Finish Tape

Youngstown East Will Uncork Air Bombardment; Titans Face Grovers

Lawrence County's grid season dashes madly toward the finish line this week-end.

The card shows that Ellwood City high will shed the moleskins after Friday evening's tussle with Beaver Falls high. The struggle is billed for Ellwood City and should attract one of the biggest congregations of the season.

So far the Wolverines have won five victories, lost one decision and were decimated by Butler High 0-0. A strong Aliquippa club marred the Ellwood record.

"Canes" Confident Confident of annexing its tenth consecutive triumph of the season, New Castle tackles a tough Youngstown East aggregation on Friday night at 8 o'clock on the greenward of Taggart stadium.

Reports from the Ohio City indicate that East will shoot aerials from all angles of the field in the hope of puncturing the local state. Coach Phil Bridenbaugh and his capable assistants are endeavoring to design a defense to check the bombardment from the air.

Saturday afternoon, Westminster College swags grid knowledge with one of its most bitter athletic rivals, Grove City College, at New Wilmington. The "Titans" homecoming day fracas promises to lure the largest gallery of the campaign.

Bessemer high performs at Rochester, Pa., facing Rochester High on Friday evening. The red and black clad eleven has suffered this season due to a number of injuries to key players.

Sherango Township will watch the grid parade from the sidelines. The Class B champions don their moleskins for the finale on Friday, Nov. 14, battling Greenville High in the Mercer county fair.

Geneva College Man Is Speaker

Dr. J. Boyd Tweed Is Heard At Special Program Of B. And P. W. Club

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 5.—With every hour-changing headlines that may affect the future of the entire world, the Ellwood City Business and Professional Women's club graciously entertained associate clubs of the district at one of the most outstanding and timely meetings of the year, their annual International Relations Night program.

With 100 members and guests in attendance, the meeting took place last evening at the First Baptist church and featured an informative address on the world situation by Dr. J. Boyd Tweed of Geneva college.

Dr. Tweed spent three years in Scotland and England and left shortly after the evacuation of Dunkirk. Today's conflict is not a military battle but a world revolution between democracy and totalitarianism and is due not to the failure of the Versailles treaty but the retreat of democracies and Hitler's determination for world dominance, he declared.

The American attitude revolves about two policies, isolation and the cooperation of all democratic peoples of the world. According to the speaker, the isolation policy is undesirable, impossible and unchristian and the only hope of a new world is the federated union of Christian forces around the world. The speaker was introduced by Miss Dorothy Young.

Another delightful feature of the evening were three varied and very lovely songs. "In the Garden of Tomorrow," "When Smoke Gets in Your Eyes" and "Home on the Range" by Mrs. Lillian Mitchell, with Miss Marjorie Streeter as accompanist. Humorous entertainment for the evening was provided by Miss Eileen Wallis, who contributed a reading, and Miss Helen Vitvich and Ken Turner, who enacted a black-face sketch.

Mrs. Mary Bell led "peppy" pep singing and music throughout the dinner was provided by Miss Audrey Young. Mrs. Edith Barnhart offered the invocation. Miss Lorena Thompson, president of the Ellwood club, proved to be a very original toastmistress.

In keeping with the program theme, the speaker's table was decorated with 27 candles representing the B. P. W. Federations in various countries, centered about an American flag and very lovely flowers, one arrangement being the gift of the Beaver Quota club. Many of the candles were not lighted signifying the federations that have been "black-out" in captive countries. The significance of the flags and candles was effectively explained by Mrs. Betty Shiever.

Guests were introduced from the Indiana, New Castle, Beaver Falls, Beaver and Butler club, and they all expressed their appreciation of the successful event.

A most delicious turkey dinner was served by women of the church at the long tables which were most attractively and cleverly decorated with red white and blue appointments and flowers. The program was small U. S. emblems and novel flag-effect place cards completed the decorations.

Arrangements for the very successful event were in charge of Mrs. Gertrude Gigliotti, Mrs. Aletha Raschella, Miss Dorothy Young, Miss Ada Hennon, Mrs. Martha Porter, Mrs. Elizabeth Shiever, Miss Margaret Carey, Mrs. Mary Bell and Mrs. Flora Plimmer.

On Tuesday, Nov. 18, the social meeting of the Ellwood club will be held in the Baptist church parlor and will be an initiation meeting in charge of Miss Iva Jackson.

Ellwood To End Season Friday

Beaver Falls High Coming Here For Finale Of Wolverines' Season

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 5.—The final act of the 1941 touchdown follies, with the Ellwood High school football team as the performers, will take place on Friday night at 7:30 o'clock at Lincoln field.

It will also be the final performance for five members of the first team and for seven of the reserves. Varsity members playing their final game will be Tammaro, end; Lordo, center; Wolfe guard; Hughes, quarterback; and Presto, right-half. Reserves completing their gridiron career include: Reinheimer and Ross, ends; D'Amico, and Bellissimo, guards; Koach, right half; Wilson, left half, and Pavick, fullback.

In their final appearance, the Wolverines will face the Beaver Falls High school Tigers. Beaver Falls has had a luckless season, topping only Midland and Erie East, but they did show much improvement last week when they lost to Midland by a single touchdown. Tate and Walton are the two main backfield standouts.

On Monday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock a special game has been arranged for Lincoln field when an Ellwood team will meet a Rochester outfit. Both teams will be composed of reserve players of the ninth, tenth and eleventh grades who did not play any varsity ball this year. Harold Burry will be in charge of the Ellwood outfit.

THE NEWS Classified Section is an invaluable buyers guide. Use it every day.

Next Saturday has been set aside by the American Legion Auxiliary of the Perry S. Gaston Post No. 343 as "Poppy Day" . . . all the monies contributed for these poppies will go into the welfare fund for the disabled, their families and the families of the dead, who gave their lives during the First World War. Earth did not bear this poppy in sweet fields.

Where wren and thistle sail into the sun, No petal drooped in pools of summer rain; One fashioned this whose marching days are done.

A flash of green and bloom of paper red: Bought in the market place among the throngs: "A poppy, sir?" These were the words he said.

"How much I asked?" "Give brother, what you will To help the boys" . . . He spoke as of command "There is no charge; give anything at all." The paper bloom lay prisoned in his hand.

"Give anything at all." The sentence pulled In memory . . . long after he had gone. To fling a silver coin, that was enough.

Bodies Of Three Army Fliers Found In Coast Mountains

(International News Service)

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—Discovery of the bodies of three army aviators, killed in plane crashes, left only one pilot and his plane unaccounted for today in the series of air mishaps caused by bad weather in northern California which have taken a known toll of 11 aviators and 12 army planes since Oct. 24.

The body of Lieut. M. H. Walker of Salt Lake City, was found in the wreckage of the B-17 bomber which broke apart in midair over the High Sierra as he was piloting the ship from Lake City to Sacramento last Sunday. Eight other members of the bomber's crew parachuted to safety.

The bodies of Lieut. Robert Agnew of Donalds, S. C., and Pvt. Dan Fisk of Willows, Cal., former University of San Francisco football star, were found in the wreckage of their army training plane below a hill three miles north of Niles.

They had taken off from Stockton Sunday for a 30-minute flight to Moffett Field. Fisk was being transferred from Salt Lake City to Moffett's football team.

Still missing was Lieut. Richard Long, whose pursuit plane vanished Oct. 24 from a formation of the 57th Pursuit group which was caught in a storm while flying to the Pacific northwest coast.

Five of the group's ships crashed and one pilot was killed. When they headed south Sunday, enroute to their Connecticut base, three more planes crashed in northern California and two pilots were killed. The five other army aviators killed during the past two days in the area comprised the crew of a light bomber that crashed Oct. 24.

Charges President Has Broken His Promises

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Sen. Walsh (D-Mass., chairman of the senate naval affairs committee, today charged that President Roosevelt has broken campaign promises by putting the navy into a shooting war in the Atlantic.

In a speech prepared for senate delivery in opposition to repeal of the major provisions of the Neutrality Act, Walsh asserted that such legislation would be tantamount to our concurrence in a shooting war which the president on his own authority has proclaimed.

Walsh opposed both the provisions of the bill authorizing the arming of merchant ships and permitting them to deliver munitions and supplies direct to British ports.

Recalls Speeches
In accusing Mr. Roosevelt of breaking his promises Walsh recalled campaign speeches of the president.

He said that the president first, on October 24, 1940, declared that American ships must stay out of war zones to avoid possibility of America being involved in war.

"A few days later, almost on the eve of election, speaking in the city of Boston, in my own state, on October 30, the president declared—and I will recall his words: 'I have said this before, and I shall say it again and again: Your boys are not going to be sent into any foreign wars,' Walsh said.

"What is the meaning in sending American boys in army uniforms to aid in defense of the British Isles, to sending boys in the uniform of the American navy into the combat zones around the British Isles, where naval war from the very beginning has been waged in undiminished intensity?"

"Are we less concerned with the lives and fate of our boys in naval uniform than our boys in the khaki of the army? Are their lives any less precious?"

Walsh said that Mr. Roosevelt may have believed he could accomplish the defeat of Hitler without American going to war.

"It is idle now to discuss what may have been the administration's original purpose or original desire," said Walsh. "Step by step we have moved into the war. This is now the last, and, to my mind, the fateful step."

Non-Interventionists Attack Moves For Arming U. S. Ships, In Debate

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
International News Service Staff

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—The non-interventionists today unleashed their number 1 orators against the ship-arming bill with Sen. Wheeler (D-Mont., accusing the administration of planning another AEF, while Sen. Walsh (D-Mass., charged that President Roosevelt had put the navy into a "shooting war" in violation of campaign promises.

As these two anti-war leaders made their senate speeches against the bill, Mr. Roosevelt held a White House conference with his legislative advisors on plans to speed the measure to final enactment.

At the conference attended by Secretary of State Hull, Vice President Wallace, Senator Majority Leader Barkley, Chairman Connally of the senate foreign relations committee and Chairman Bloom of the house foreign affairs committee, Mr. Roosevelt asked that proposed anti-strike amendments to the measure be rejected to clear the way for swift passage. These amendments backed by Sens. Bailey (D-N.C. and O'Daniels (D-Tex., were offered during the heat of the coal strike last month although their subject matter was not related to the neutrality act which the bill affects.

Wheeler, in his speech to the senate declared that passage of the measure allowing armed American ships to go into combat zones is tantamount to backing an undeclared war. It is virtually certain, he said, to lead to total war.

"Despite the cold hard fact," Wheeler said, "it is no secret that planning has begun for an AEF—upon the hysterical bombast of those unthinking people who want to declare war first and think about winning it afterwards."

Two Fires Occur Tuesday Evening

City firemen were called out twice Tuesday evening for small fires.

At 7:35 o'clock, they were called to the home of Matilda Bogdon, of 915 Marshall avenue, where fire had started under the seat of an automobile. It was necessary to rip out the upholstery to get at the fire. The loss was around $25.

At 8:35 o'clock, they were called to the home of Joseph Pensla, of 208 South Cedar street, where a small fire was caused by an overheated furnace. Damage of around $50 resulted.

Republicans Make Philadelphia Gains

Carry Important Offices In Election On Tuesday—Win Seven Judgeships

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.—The Republican party carried three out of the four row offices in Philadelphia, won all seven contested judgeships and five of the eight magistrate posts at stake in yesterday's municipal elections, complete unofficial returns showed today.

Heavy balloting brought out 61.6 per cent of a total registration of 1,015,887 in a contest marked by a bitter but futile Democratic fight against four Republican sitting judges.

Closeness of the vote was attested by the fact that first returns indicated the Republicans had split four-four on the magistrature jobs. Only by a neck and neck finish did the G. O. P. finally capture five of the eight places when final figures were in.

By their victory, the G. O. P. forces regained control of the city Treasurer, register of wills and coroner offices, held by the Democrats for the last eight years. They lost only the controllership to Robert C. White, incumbent, who defeated his Republican opponent, Alvin R. Swenson.

Mediation Board Meets In Secret

Begins Draft Of Recommendations In John L. Lewis "Union Shop" Dispute

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—The national defense mediation board met in secret session today to begin drafting its recommendations in the "union shop" dispute between John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers Union and steel companies operating coal mines.

After hearing arguments from both sides for two days, Board Chairman William H. Davis indicated that a decision could be expected either tomorrow or Friday. In calling off a strike of the 33,000 miners last week, Lewis set Nov. 15 as a final deadline for board action in the labor dispute.

While a decision will not be binding upon either the companies or the union, the board is expected to make the recommendations public, thus depending upon public opinion and the willingness of both sides of the controversy to abide by the terms.

Davis revealed that spokesmen for the miners and the companies clung to their "basic positions" up to the very end of the hearings. The companies contend they should have the right to continue hiring non-union men to work alongside the recognized U. M. W. while Lewis insists that the union shop is essential to harmonious relations between the union and the corporations.

News Briefs From City Hall

Following a conference between Acting Mayor J. Leon Fink and City Solicitor Robert M. White, Chief of Police Willis G. McMullen ordered persons in charge of dynamiting scrap on the steel mill site in the Moravia street section to cease dynamiting until a wire net to catch debris had been installed. Possibility of injury to persons and damage to property caused the action.

J. Leon Fink, acting as police court judge today, had nothing much to do. He discharged one person accused of intoxication last night.

Chevrolet sedan, Penna. license 2X598, owned by the Lawrence Auto Company, was reportedly stolen from the rear of the garage last night.

Councilman J. D. Alexander and Controller S. L. Lockley, re-elected to office yesterday, today received congratulations in their city hall offices. James Gibson will succeed Street Director William H. Dunlap in January.

Lieutenant of Police James Steiner, who is in charge of day traffic, today enforced traffic regulations in downtown alleys. Cars parked illegally were tagged. He stated that from now on illegal parking in alleys will result in tags because if a fire developed and fire equipment had to be taken to a downtown business alley, apparatus would be blocked.

Mrs. Stanley Paul, 520 Hillcrest avenue, allegedly drove an auto which skidded in North Mill street near East Washington street last night broke a cement sign pole and forced it through a business house window.
